

Use the following thoughts and questions to have one spiritual conversation. You can pick and choose, use them all or just allow the statement to be your guide. The emphasis shouldn't be about having all the answers, but simply having a conversation.

Scripture

Isaiah 6:1-8

1. Opening Statement

Begin your conversation by asking about this main point:

The reality of sin can only be rightly understood when compared to God's personal holiness.

This main point is the biblical truth the student's study was built around. Each week there will be one statement that ties the whole study together. These would be great statements to remember together. The hope is that thoughts and ideas will stem from these statements. You can also begin by sharing a thought of your own that you learned during your study of the same session. Ask what thoughts were surprising as the study was taught.

2. Thought From the Study

Isaiah was filled with both awe and terror. In recognizing the purity and goodness of God, he came to see his own lack of goodness—his uncleanness and sin. Even more importantly, he recognized that he was ruined in light of God's holiness.

3. Quote for Discussion

Discuss this quote together. How does this change your understanding of a relationship with Jesus?

God is sovereign, so live confidently. God is holy, so live reverently. —Adrian Rogers

4. Conversation Questions

Use these questions to begin thinking through and applying the lessons to your family life:

- 1. Like Isaiah, what has our family witnessed that reflects the power, majesty, and beauty of God? How did those instances affect us?
- 2. Why do you suppose we, as a culture, often lack awe and wonder? What are some ways our family can enhance our vision of God's glory and holiness?
- 3. Take a few minutes for each family member to share about the ways their own encounter and relationship with God has changed them.
- 4. How can our family help each other be more mindful about pursuing a heart like God's in the weeks ahead?
